About us:

Cranleigh Farming & Food Festival (previously Cranleigh Show) is an annual one-day agricultural show staged by the Cranleigh & South Eastern Agricultural Society, a registered charity. The Show, which takes place in the heart of the village of Cranleigh in Surrey, this is our first show since 2019 and we are coming back with a BANG!

The Cranleigh & South Eastern Agricultural Society was established in 1946 by an enthusiastic group of local farmers to promote and celebrate good farming practice, the advancement of livestock and horse breeding and to educate the general public in promoting an awareness of the British agricultural industry generally.

We are returning with another exciting show which will include livestock and heavy horses on show, hands-on activities for children and young at heart adults alike will be in abundance with local experts demonstrating traditional country crafts. There will also be plenty of country themed entertainment from gun dog demonstrations, terrier racing, tractor rides, donkey rides and falconry display to keep the whole family entertained.

Cranleigh Show prides itself on being part of the local community and is run almost entirely by volunteers as a not-for-profit event.
